

The Educator's School Safety Network is a dynamic, growing organization. Take a look at some of our accomplishments over the last 24 months:

Presentations and trainings >>

In just 24 months ESSN has:

- Provided direct teacher and administrative training to more than 2,400 educators in 14 different school districts and educational service centers in Ohio, Maryland, Washington DC, Iowa, Wisconsin, California, and New York.
- Presented to more than 5,000 educators, administrators, law enforcement officials, social workers, psychologists, and parents at international, national, regional, and state conferences.

Publications and content creation >> In just 24 months ESSN has created content and publications including:

- Book published by ASCD: Keeping Students Safe Every Day
- Study guide and resources correlated to each chapter of Keeping Students Safe Every Day
- EDGE Tool Effective Use Guide — published by DHS Science and Technology Directorate
- EDGE Participant Guide — published by DHS Science and Technology Directorate
- Threat Assessment Management Toolkit — published by the Texas School Safety Center
- Violent Incident and Threats in Schools research report
- States of Concern research report
- School Safety News and School Safety Free Period weekly podcasts
- Climate and Culture Professional Learning Community Guide

Climate and Culture Professional Learning Community Guide

EDGE Tool Effective Use Guide

Keeping Students Safe Every Day by Dr. Amy Klinger and Amanda Klinger

National and international media exposure >>

In just 24 months ESSN has given hundreds of media interviews on television, radio, online, and in newspapers, including national and international exposure through:

- C-Span
- NBC News
- ABC News
- USA Today
- The New York Times
- Washington Post
- School Administrator Magazine
- Popular Mechanics
- Education Week

Building relationships and partnerships >>

In just 24 months ESSN has established on-going collaborative relationships with important national organizations including:

- The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Science and Technology Directorate
- The Federal Commission on School Safety established after the Parkland shooting
- The Texas School Safety Center
- Blackboard Inc.
- The Association for Supervision and Curriculum Development (ASCD)
- Safe and Sound Schools – Sandy Hook parent organization
- NBC News Education Nation
- The I Luv U Guys Foundation

Advocacy and policy development >>

In just 24 months ESSN has advocated for improved school safety:

- Member of the panel of televised policy discussions at Harvard University
- Invited to participate in the DHS School Security Roundtable in Washington DC
- Featured on C-Span
- Meetings with politicians and policy makers in Ohio, Florida, and Washington DC
- Participated in national webinars and twitter chats through NBC News and ASCD

Susanna Martinez, Governor of New Mexico, with Amanda Klinger and Dr. Amy Klinger

About us

The Educator's School Safety Network is a national, not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing school safety training, resources, and technical assistance to schools throughout the U.S. and Canada.

Dr. Amy Klinger

is the founder and Director of Programs for the Educator's School Safety Network. He is nationally recognized as an expert in school safety and crisis management.

Dr. Amy Klinger

Dr. Klinger is first and foremost an educator, with 28 years of service as a teacher, building principal, and college professor. She brings practitioner and researcher perspectives to the critical concerns of school crisis response. With expertise in active shooter response, crisis planning and preparedness, vulnerability assessment and mitigation, as well as lockdown enhancements, Dr. Klinger combines a knowledge of law enforcement procedures with the practical experience of educational administration.

Amanda Klinger

is the Director of Operations for the national non-profit organization, The Educator's School Safety Network and has past experience both as an attorney and an educator.

Amanda Klinger

Ms. Klinger brings a practitioner's perspective to thought leadership in the field of school safety, and the critical legal issues involved in school crisis response, cyberbullying, and the use of technology during crisis events.